In the Matter of:

Qingshan Li, Room 201 NO106 Lane 24, Chengshan Rd, Pudong District, Shanghai, China 200126;

Order Denying Export Privileges

On June 12, 2020, in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California, Qingshan Li (“Li”) was convicted of violating Section 38 of the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C 2778) (“AECA”). Specifically, Li was convicted of knowingly and willfully attempting to export from the United States to China, a Harris Falcon III AN/PRC 152A Radio, which is designated as a defense article on the United States Munitions List, without the required licenses or written authorization from the State Department. As a result of his conviction, the Court sentenced Li to 36 months of confinement, three years of supervised release and $100 assessment. Li was also placed on U.S. Department of State’s debarred list.

Pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act (“ECRA”), the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of certain offenses, including, but not limited to, Section 38 of the AECA, may be denied for a period of up to ten (10) years from the date of his/her conviction. See 50 U.S.C. 4819(e). In addition, any Bureau of Industry and Security (“BIS”) licenses or other authorizations issued under ECRA, in which the person had an interest at the time of the conviction, may be revoked. Id.
